Dedication

*To all the dreamers, and to the ambitious souls
To the ones who are seeking to live their own finger-print in this world to memories them
To all those who are seeking a foot-hold in a world the survival in it is for the strongest
To those who does not like the word impossible
In addition to, it can't be done; their own dictionary does not recognize it
To these chumps
To these reckless people
To every greedy
To every capitalist
I say to you all
Thank You
You just made me, rich with an additional green buck in my bank account
This is your first lesson
This is your first step into the road of the impossible*

fateh .Z. fenni

Introduction

*I will make my words to you so easy,
Did you ask yourself one day, what makes them so exceptional?
What is the thing that distinguish them from you?*

I mean with this:

Bill Gates, Oprah, Fang Wah, Jack Mah, Warren Baffet, Mark Zuckerberg,

And me of course!!!

What makes them so special?

The answer is very simple:

Their believe of being so different from us,

Their believe of being unique,

They want to live a mark

Look to Donald Trump

The fool passed them all

(That's why you know them, they don't know you)

Maybe you will say:

These people are geniuses

Trump is not one of them!

One last word:

Think first, the idea will come to you

Because it's in you

So find it

fateh .Z. fenni

Always Have A Clear Principals

The economic laws are not Ethics or Holy Rules,

They are just means to an end

For that, you need to know:

Socialism is clear, Capitalism is practical

For that, the person must have values

It does not matter what kind

-The Good kind Is Better-

The clear your values to you, the better

Are you a:

- Shark -vicious-
- Lion -majestic-
- Cat -opportunist-
- Wolf –group thing-

(The sea and the jungle are full with many bizarre creatures)

Your type decides your path,

And the nature of your enemies

Always Have A Clear Vision

To know what you want in your life,

To know the type and the nature of the job you want,

In addition,

The role you want from your job to play through you

And not the opposite (Understand this very well)

In short,

- Don't let any job steal your life from you,
- Don't let any job pinch Your character,
- Don't let the job hijack you

FREE

Have A Strategy

Your needs are always in continues change,

So your vision

For that, you need a project to build a strategy

A strategy that you always depend on it

To fix the tactical flaws in your tactics

Which you are applying to reach your goal, which is:

To Enter The Billionaires Club

Your strategy and you, must not be too lissome

And not too stiff

Never evade from your goal

FREE

Focus On Your Goal

You want to enter the club,

You are not a hard working person for nothing

You don't want to find yourself in the millionaires club, at the end

Why?

Simply because you did not understand the difference between:

The Million, The Billion

Moreover, i don't mean with that mathematical

However, i mean:

Marketing, plus the necessary endurance to reach your main aim

Which is it already in your hand

- Never evade from your goal
- Never sheer your ship

This counsel you will face it repeatedly, forever and ever

Maybe you think this is a useless step!?

An axiom to you

Nevertheless, you will be surprise,

How many millionaire are there?

How many billionaire are there?

Seven billion?

I dare you to say it

Not The Only One

- Your geniality
- Your ambition
- Your dreams

Boarded only by your:

Imagination

In addition, so are your competitors

They are not less than you are

(Maybe, just maybe they are better)

And the only thing that separate you from them is:

The open market to all

So,

Know yourself, and value your foes

Be Ready To Compromise

Put in your account always:

That the road you are in, needs some fellowship

No matter how:

Smart, Strong, Rich ...

You are

(In short your abilities)

You need a rival to help you

The better he is compared to you in every aspect,

The better the rival, The better you will become

This will have a positive effect in you, and in your growth

Don't tell him that?!!

I will give you a phase in a step:

Be The Captain

Don't lose the control over your company

If you lose it, it is rarely to be restored

Take The Risk

Having the vision and the strategy to apply it,

It doesn't mean you are flawless

The old wisdom:

Spend money to make money

The cowardness toward the risks, and the trust in numbers

That means you are badly behaving dude

Don't forget why your ship sailed at the first place

Enjoy the ride

You are special and unique, but you are not the only one in

The tank or the forest

And when you think you are a predator

On the other hand, maybe you think you are the only hunter out there

There are some one, who was hunting you from the start

However, he was having fun with his preyed

That if he did not consider you a bait for something else,

Much better than you, much worthy

Distinguish yourself, to be recognized

Or use the principle of the shock, in the market

Even if there are some certain defeat

Let them say, let them read:

Unpredictable Man

Make Your Peace With The loss

To lose is the essence of this life or any battle

For that, you need to accept the outcome of your decisions, it is not a conspiracy aiming to over throw you, and it is your orders,

Always remember:

Better Than...!

To lose a million is better than to lose a ten million

Moreover, to lose 100 thousand, is better than to lose a one million

- Learn the lesson
- Raise the hat
- Back to the field
- Next battle please

Detraction the losses:

What to keep, and what to let go

A very hard verdict!

(I know)

It is hard to fire some one part of the team -The family-

Whether is a:

- Family provider
- Single providing mom
- Young man engaged

Who you goanna fire?, to make it easy for you:

Let go the financially safe (In short and long term)

Don't let the smart one go, especially if you need it today and tomorrow

In addition, you can let the ones who have no harm on you in courtrooms (Lawsuits)

In short words:

Don't look to people, look to the data and to the statistics

Remember:

When you know what you want, you will know what the necessary sacrifices are

Player Be

- They are a head of you
- They are better than you are
- They have what you don't have

So you like it or not

You are going

To bow to them, sooner or later

So play:

For them, By them, With them

- Be a Pawn
- Be a Rival
- Be a King

I have a clear goal, but i am not the only one in the jungle

I will not help you

I will not donate to your society

I am a very nice person, if you get to know me personally

This is my company, my vision

I will not lose it like:

Steve Jobs

In addition, no one will still my ideas, and my innovations

Why?

Because i will crush you

This is a savage world

I am not a fan of wasting my own time

I am the boss here

I am the responsible of my decisions

So:

Alice, John

YOU ARE FIRED

Let us start again, now we have learned

In addition, we have experience

When You Doubt . You Are Out

If you want to do something,

Just Do It

When you stake on something, throw your weight on it

On the other hand, you can use the weight of the rival, with no hesitation

The second you doubt

This is similar to the moment that the sharks smell the blood in it

They will attack, they will leave nothing

Even the bones for the dogs or wolfs, all will try to take them

Sanctum

It is nice to have an enemy

That is the prove that you exist

Nevertheless, it is nicer to have a:

- Friend or two
- Bank or two
- Offshore account or two

Because the fall, is a possibility

And sometimes,

You don't know how far the fall will take you

For that,

You don't want to go back to the point of the start

An empty-handed person, with powerful enemies

So,

Don't waste your money on:

- Nightclubs
- Women
- Cars

Let's say it:

You are the only one,

Who knows about the fatigue

Keep A Presence

This the media part, the publicities

I will leave you with this:

When the good biography remembered,

It overcomes the good deed it self

Don't respond on those who hurt you,

Just take a note, and wait!

When the time and the situation helps

Let everyone see what you are doing

To them

Finish Them . End The Battle

Don not leave any witnesses,

Your enemy is your clone!

He has your qualities, your temper

Maybe:

He is even much efficient compared to you

Put yourself in his place:

- Will you have pity?
- Will you have forgiveness?

I think you know the answer

Everyone is reading the book:

The same book you are reading

(This book)

So,

Finish them all

The Wars Never End

*Crushing a bug,
Is not like crushing an elephant!
If you think the opposite of this
I advise you to live in paranoia
I advise you also, to fear your own shadow*

*Because,
You don't know when you are about to be crushed*

*The truth is:
The battle ends
The war never ends*

*This is the nature of what we do,
We pick a battle we end the enemy, and so on*

*Because,
We are in continues war
Our wars never end*

Strong In You The Dark Past

No matter what rests in your past a:

- Crime
- Hitting your kids
- Ethical cases
- Financial crimes

All of that will hunt you one day

So get this:

You are a criminal; they should know this about you

(It is better)

The dark side in you is strong

It feeds you

It powers you

In addition, always speak in your own language because:

They do not understand you

FREE

Share Your Aggression

I am not saying share them your opinions,

I am not saying share them your feelings

I said share them your truculence

Moreover, the more it is clear the better

And the more the number of those who know this about you, the better

However, always remember:

The more, the worse,

Remember to know the limits

Don't cross the lines

In addition, i don't like people so much

Knowledge Is Power

Not education

Not your school grade

Or if you went to college or not

Am speaking about knowledge

Knowledge is not:

- Where the giraffe lives?
- From where the baby's come?

I am speaking about knowledge in your field

The more you know

The more the faith grow

(Faith in entering the club)

Know the world

Answer this:

- What is knowledge?
- What do i need to know?

Be certain of this:

You will never know satisfaction

What Is The Million

What do you know about it?

Except that, it is a big number

Do you understand the demography of the million?

Do you really understand the million?

You will not own a single million dollar, just because you have a plot

The world is full with many successful projects and plots

Plus to the failing ones

However...

How many of them is a billionaire?

In a day or two,

He say to you, that the same amount of money buys you

Two barrels or three

And why not a single liter

Can you answer me:

Who is the real decider here?

The answer is:

Not The Market

In addition, it is not the oil producers,

Because:

They are also losers in this game,

Besides, the little clients (car owners...)

When you know the answer,

Keep it to your self

Remember:

Knowledge is power

The less the number of knowers (Those who knows)

Too much powerful you become

What's My Gift
